“Demetra Tsavaris-Lecourezos outdoes herself on her latest book, Ready, Set, OPA!, in which she takes her readers on a literary adventure to Greece. The book’s syntax and rich, historical context is impressive. Readers will feel like they have visited Greece themselves after learning about the country’s important monuments and other history. This literary project is warm and heartfelt! Ms. Lecourezos is like fine wine, where she only gets better with time.”
